

The Price of Complacency

The price of inaction in the face of criminal government is about to be extracted; the cost will be borne by ALL. Would the point finally be driven home if the irrefutable, clearest indicator of psychopathology in government were to be demonstrated to the whole world? The manic and ruthless determination by Washington neocons to pursue an inherently sociopathic plan for world domination (PNAC) now threatens to open Pandora's NUCLEAR box. Once open every nation would have been given license by the USA to utilise any weapon it chooses - perhaps that is the wish of doctrinaire neocons who subscribe to the permanent war philosophy? The near future should confirm whether Israeli training exercises and U.S. intelligence gathering materialises into a nuclear attack on Iran.

The 'Perle recommendation' - to utilise every weapon in the US military arsenal - is about to become reality and the consequences of that insane action will be felt by the WHOLE WORLD, of that be assured - the gates of hell would have been thrown open by hell's own!

Don't cry for me, cry for yourself, will become the popular refrain. Do not forget to apologise to your children and loved ones for your timidity and failure to act in time.

Adieu!
