

U.S. led Destruction of Yugoslavia Continues

Following NATO's support of KLA terrorist separatists and Bush's promise to support secessionist moves by Albanians living in the Serbian province of Kosovo, Condoleezza 'war whore' Rice, today "assured" leading separatists the U.S. is "committed" to Kosovo's independence "within months" regardless of UN Security Council decisions! Isn't that just typical? We are all reminded of America ignoring accurate UN reports that WMD did NOT exist in pre-invasion Iraq but America, in usual rustic fashion, invaded anyway and created the world's worst humanitarian tragedy since WWII -- innocent civilian casualties are fast approaching one million!

George A Custer: prototypical American Military Fool

The USA cares less about the Albanians and Serbs in Kosovo than it does about Iraqis, but the "project for the new American century" (PNAC) must be followed at any cost. It is extremely unfortunate the sovereign nation of Yugoslavia interfered with American plans for the Balkans, so it's goodbye Yugoslavia - but at what price?

How many times have Serbs been forced to fight in defence of their homeland, national identity and families, how long have Serbs endured the injustices, tortures and oppression of foreign invaders AND PREVAILED AGAINST ALL ODDS? If America understood the culture and national character perhaps they would be less keen to invite conflict with a most formidable enemy. Serbia like Vietnam and Afghanistan has been at war for most of its 1300 year history; the tenacious fighting spirit those circumstances create begs the obvious question, is America willing to attract the scorn of a people steeped in a tradition of the 'weak' overcoming the 'strong'?

It was the Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh who defiantly stated that invading Americans would never succeed in taking his nation, history confirmed the outcome. Afghanistan is a less vocal culture but history records that no invader has ever succeeded in Afghanistan.

It is unfortunate that NATO and U.S. leaders are ignorant of history. The appalling and horrendous failures in Iraq and Afghanistan indicate that America has learnt nothing, so in view of its recent 'stunning successes,' American 'strategy' dictates that Serbia should be provoked into guerrilla warfare -- American genius at work once again! When will they ever learn?

A previous invader, Adolf Hitler, knew too well you can never let down your guard once you invade Yugoslavia, just ask the many Nazis who woke up dead with slit throats while their comrades slept in close proximity or perhaps you may still be able to locate some old Nazis living life without their testicles! However, today's tactics warrant a modern response, but one no less severe for invaders.

America bears full responsibility for the deaths of millions of innocent civilians, the cost of America's imperialist ambitions. We can expect the U.S. to continue on its criminal course and unilaterally declare Kosovo Independent in the near future. However, history suggests that failure would be the result of this clumsy, thoughtless act - unless of course America is willing to fight for hundreds of years!

It is painfully obvious that America has no answer for less capable Arab fighters yet they wish to stir an 'ill wind' in Europe and on the home front -- good luck Uncle, if my researches are correct, you'll need it!

I am informed that America can be "assured" that Serbs are "committed" and will respond to all assaults on their sovereignty "within months."
