

Haneef: Mickey Mouse Indian 'dossier' appears!

by nano Wednesday, Aug 1 2007, 1:00pm

national / injustice/law / commentary

A clear indication that Australian 'authorities' are culpable in their treatment of Dr Haneef is when the investigation departs into the fantastic. Police are presently making amorous advances in the direction of the absurd, ludicrous and fantastic - I knew my literature major would come in handy one day - fiction of the absurd, metafiction, fabulation and various other genres may all converge and lay claim to the Haneef FARCE but the world of reality can make no claim whatsoever!

A very convenient and accommodating Indian police 'dossier' has been presented to the Australian media. There is little doubt this dossier was 'purchased' or is the work of an amateurish Indian spin doctor - I had almost forgotten the volatile relationship between Muslims and Hindus on the sub-continent. This dossier has all the legal strength of wet tissue but that hasn't deterred our federal police chief, Mick (get a grip) Keelty from pursuing an obvious FABRICATION and flogging the dead Howard donkey to new levels of death - it's all down hill from here, Mick!

The 'wet tissue' dossier mentions "Al-Qaeda" but fails to establish any connection to Haneef BUT that wasn't its purpose; it was never intended to satisfy legal requirements. It was created as media material, 'moron fodder.' But after 11 years of Howard's lies, morons are becoming a scarce commodity in Oz. The 'dossier' has already become the butt of many a pub joke.

Surely our federal (bureaucratic) police can match their state counterparts; if non-existent foetal blood can be produced to convict in the Chamberlain case the public is wondering why it's taking so long to fabricate evidence in the Haneef case - the monumental loss of face demands it, one would have thought.

Nonetheless, we should always include the oblique view. From that perspective we see the Haneef 'dossier' distracting from the collusion and machinations of Howard, senior government ministers and federal authorities - who, you will remember, all came out together to form a chorus and serenade the MEDIA with selective information designed to enhance the re-election prospects of John Howard and his conservative government. But don't let on -- no one has noticed'!

Distraction is a two-edged sword, it also benefits those who have come to Sydney just for the APEC summit.

Get a grip, you imbeciles! Do your bloody jobs or risk becoming the laughing stock of the world and an example of how NOT to do it!

Cleaves Alternative News. <http://cleaves.lingama.net/news/story-624.html>