

Freefalling markets, energy wars and domestic collapse

Take your pick of failures and debacles conservatives have created on the home front and around the globe. They are numerous and severe but perhaps the most understated and most dangerous are attempts by neo-conservative forces to command the rich resources of Central Asia. It's a long way from home, Uncle; the advantage and strength always lies with the locals (SCO group) and the Sino-Russian military alliance. This is THEIR region and as would be expected any attempts by foreign forces to invade will be resisted to the death - who would not fight foreign invaders from the other side of the world that would threaten home, family and prosperity?

Death without honour in Iraq

Analysts are watching Central Asia, Kosovo, and the maligned and severely pressured Serbian people - who are capable of waging a most comprehensive guerilla campaign in Western EUROPE for centuries if necessary. The burgeoning populations of Asia are poised and ready to spill across borders at the first sign of upheaval. Kill us and you kill yourselves, we embrace you like a lover!

NATO and U.S. neo-colonial expansionism may have been halted in the Balkans and Central Asia or these regions may prove to be the powder keg that leaves America in economic and social ruin - a situation largely created by neo-conservatives and their ideology of 'might is right,' why trade like civilised people when you can shove a gun in someone's face and steal what you want? Just hope and pray that China doesn't start dumping US bonds and other assets, Uncle - it CAN afford it!

You've obviously learnt nothing from history, Uncle! You are guaranteed to FAIL as surely as all the petty dictators and empires that preceded you. But you might as well give it a shot, ay! You haven't got the skill or intelligence to do it any other way. This time the GLOBE will MOBILISE against YOU, the AGGRESSOR, so in language you easily understand, "bring it on!" Tempting isn't it?

How does it feel to be so thoroughly exposed as the most stupid nation on the planet; you remember, "bouquets of flowers, mission accomplished, unknown knowns, WMD, broke the back of the insurgency, unsupported credit/debt economy, porous borders, failed drug wars" etc etc. A real success story! But dream on (that's all you have) a dream so divorced from reality it promises to become an end-time nightmare - a pathology your population actually embraces, you bunch of sick shits. The sooner you implode the better for ALL life on earth.

A succession of incompetent clowns and criminals has destroyed your nation from within. However, the biggest failure of ALL is the failure of the American people who - according to the founding principles of the nation -- are legally OBLIGED to remove destructive and clearly incompetent governments.

Postscript:

It is tragically obvious from information freely available that criminal neo-conservative forces are preparing to detonate a dirty bomb in another black flag operation -- a last ditch effort to save their own filthy criminal hides. Karl Rove didn't retire he merely removed himself from the spotlight; he is now working in the shadows.

How is it the whole world is able to read the coming event but you cannot? Perhaps it's just as well; it has all come home to roost -- the Scorpion turns its poison barb on itself when faced with no viable options.

Who serves and dies for liars, fools and criminals? Bigger fools!

"The past was not predictable when it started." -- Donald Rumsfeld -- for Christ's sake! But we imagine it does make sense to Americans!

Hu and Putin consolidate
