A State responsible for over 2 million civilian deaths in Indo-China (indiscriminate carpet bombing) and over 1 million civilian deaths in Iraq recently declared that the Iranian Revolutionary Guard should be designated a terrorist organisation! It seems the higher you go in American politics the less brainpower is required to make decisions. The Gulf of Tonkin 'incident,' the USS Liberty attack of the 6 day war, the WMD Iraq deceptions and the latest absurd government explanations (garble) we are asked to swallow regarding the destruction of WTC buildings and the anthrax letters makes Alice in Wonderland the epitome of rational thought and logic.

Red Queen running with Alice

It is true we live in a topsy-turvy world of irrationality, very ill logic and injustice. We ARE a society of morons who accept punishment or jail for minor misdemeanours while our lunatic, criminal rulers remain unpunished for committing unspeakable cruelties and monstrous crimes against humanity. Who is the more culpable in these situations the people or their rulers/governments?

Not in living memory has the world witnessed such profound incompetence as that displayed by the new conservatives or neo-cons as they are dis-affectionately known. Their delinquent actions have resulted in the destruction of an entire nation and millions of innocent deaths; yet as if to deflect their culpability, they rant that others are to blame and that an attack on them is imminent in order to restore/preserve the 'freedom' to slaughter others who may unfortunately possess resources or strategic territory that PIG AMERICA covets!

Perhaps we should obtain one of those magic bullets that turns corners and follows an impossible trajectory to finally blow the brain from the skull of a Irish Catholic Democrat President who attracted the scorn of conservatives of that period.

But we are I'm sorry to say, beyond redemption for allowing ourselves to be led by heinous criminals and the dregs of humanity. The worst is yet to come and our irrational fears will soon be justified - do we actually expect improvement by allowing the same forces to act as overlords over their own private serfdoms?

Carnage is my name and I promise you a hell ON EARTH worse than any Hades described in any text written by man; but I couldn't have done it without YOUR contribution. In fact, you have made it ALL possible, you have earned your reward, and it couldn't happen to a more deserving bunch.
