The reward for misplaced faith in the faulty model of laissez-faire Capitalism is LOSS - that simple! Loss in the context of unregulated Capitalism includes everything considered of 'value.' It is over! The false value system that is destroying life on earth and is about to plunge the entire world into chaos is now beyond any one nation's control or 'managerial' ability. In fact, to refer to today's economic system as capitalism is erroneous - classic capitalism has d/evolved over the last few decades into ECONOMIC FEUDALISM; the resulting concentration of available wealth in the fewest possible hands is the root cause of system FAILURE!

The factor that traditionally provided the safety net was the distribution of existing wealth throughout society - inequitable though that distribution may have been it nevertheless provided a 'storage space/place' for the largest quantity of wealth. That 'storage' had provided a buffer and lifebuoy for failed markets, as stored wealth could be accessed via labour, infrastructure, machinery, technology, skill and LIQUIDITY IN THE FORM OF SAVINGS. But the credit economy destroyed the previous model. Today, the very backbone/support of society has been destroyed by capitalism's hidden self-destruct code - wealth for the fewest! Capitalism is culminating.

Today, we witness the largest percentage of wealth in the fewest possible 'hands' - someone forgot the balancing/safety principle. Nothing falls free from the sky, the concentrated wealth we see today has been appropriated at the expense of the once vast social 'storehouse' - THE BARN IS NOW EMPTY and the animals are hungry.

The 'barnyard' analogy is accurate; animals cannot be fed pretend food or fancy tricks they must be sustained on REAL food. Economies cannot be fed valueless paper or artistic numeric displays on computer screens - they must be fed savings, resources and production, NOT revolving CREDIT and paper injections from banks - the dream is turning nightmare as I type.

This site has warned its readers to withdraw their funds and realise their assets on many occasions - perhaps this is the VERY LAST OPPORTUNITY.

The international economic system has nowhere to go but to oblivion - the model has failed!

Large nation states cannot survive, nor can their alienated inhabitants. It is clear that mutually cooperative communities offer the optimum model in the present crisis.

May we not be thankful for what we are about to receive but let us at least be aware of our past folly!
