

Reining in the Rogue

international / imperialism / commentary

After years of criticisms, analysis and debate, the Iraq situation has only worsened. Furthermore, the world can expect an attack on Iran before the current US regime leaves office. We have all been distracted by clever commentary, 'exposures,' ENDLESS TALK and a very compliant media. What is lacking, however, is ACTION and that is NO ACCIDENT!

Consider the prospect of an Iraqi nation with effective independent government, how long would American occupation endure in those circumstances? No independent nation can tolerate foreign occupation - therefore in whose interests is it to maintain total chaos in Iraq?

Now consider the psychopathology of America maintaining its presence in Iraq and the price in innocent lives paid by the Iraqi people. American Oil companies and their military arm, the Cheney/Bush regime, could care less for the sanctity of human life when their grubby profits are threatened - notwithstanding the fact that their profits result from plunder and theft.

The FACT that America and its sycophantic allies, Australia, UK and Israel are rogue nations engaged in murder, criminal occupation and illegal exploitation cannot be denied forever. The leaders of these nations would not survive prosecution in any international criminal court!

These nations have much in common, the exclusivity born/e of race, religion and ultra-conservative politics allow them to pursue their heinous criminality; nevertheless, we would remind these nations that EVERYTHING COMES AT A PRICE!

Allowing criminal, rogue nations to ply their murderous and thieving trade is unacceptable for the current international community, especially the new European and Asian alliances. Quite simply it is time to raze the rogues - that reality must be faced, as the rogue that America has become is clearly BEYOND REDEMPTION!

The longer we postpone dealing with the rogue the higher the ultimate cost. It should be clear to the entire world that America cares for nothing but itself - the lives of INNOCENT men, women and CHILDREN amount to nothing in American eyes; their behaviour in Iraq provides the most dramatic and ghastly PROOF of the REAL character of the USA.

Russia, China, Europe, India, Pakistan and other nations must eradicate the blight and disease from the world. It must be done, there is no avoiding the necessity of this action - an action most would be interested to learn America has anticipated! Nations of the world have been treated as fools and eunuchs by the arrogant, belligerent, rogue State.

When nations attempt to justify their genocidal and criminal actions as proof of superiority, race or religion/ideology know those nations to be the ENEMIES of the world. Nations that believe that murdering and thieving are divine directives are truly INSANE.

To reiterate; commentary, exposures, debate, and analysis are all designed to placate the public conscience and INHIBIT remedial ACTION! Do not be deceived, America relies on chaos in order to justify its occupations, murders and thefts.

However, everything comes at an appropriate cost - the cost for attempted world domination is annihilation!

IT IS DONE.
