It has been a very eventful week, if you blinked you may have missed a very dangerous serpent hatching from its egg. A number of potentially explosive situations occurred IN CONJUNCTION this week.

I will begin with the sham elections in Kosovo. Legal democratic elections can only occur under the authority of the LEGITIMATE government of the nation in which they are held - authority and legality issue from principles enshrined in the legislature and/or constitution of that nation. The Kosovo elections are an illegal and illegitimate attempt by invading powers to legitimise their occupation of the Balkans and the heinous crime of supporting an illegal secessionist, Islamic, terrorist organisation (KLA) against the mother Christian nation of Yugoslavia. Put simply the Kosovo elections are FARCICAL, an absurdity of the highest order. We recall the rhetoric of the US and NATO attempting to justify their illegal invasions of other nations - we are spreading "democracy and liberty!" To the contrary, Kosovo stands as glaring PROOF of that LIE.

To paraphrase the immortal words of a Serbian leader in reference to the Hague court, 'the only legitimacy NATO and the US have is to suck Yugoslav cock!' [CCCC]

This week saw China boycott a meeting of western (U.S. dominated) interests pushing to increase pressure on Iran. Russia also withdrew from the Conventional Forces in Europe (CFE) arms treaty - can you blame them with America installing missile 'defence' systems in Poland and the Czech Republic.

An Australian government coroner's inquiry has, after 32 years, found that five Australian journalists were deliberately killed by the American backed Suharto regime in East Timor in 1975. The coroner referred to the murders as war crimes. It remains to be seen how the compliant, gutless, Australian government will avoid confronting Indonesia and bringing the murderers to trial - pathetic! Can you imagine Howard or Rudd, two renowned 'custard faces,' confronting Indonesia and demanding the murderers be brought to justice?

The American pet dictator of Pakistan, Pervez Musharraf, is under siege from his own people to allow democratic elections. Musharraf refuses to hold open elections on the grounds that the nuclear arsenal would fall into the hands of extremists if his military dictatorship loses control. Of course Musharraf is willing to conduct American style elections where the winner is predetermined. Steps are presently under way to do just that!

The gelded UN this week released a study that warns of “irreversible” consequences for the planet if measures to curtail global warming are not immediately implemented. The UN announcement was reinforced with news of a cyclone pounding Bangladesh with 100mph winds and a sea surge that killed over one thousand people. No one is listening; the global warming ‘train’ hurtles uncontrollably to its catastrophic destination! There simply isn’t any PROFIT in curtailing emissions - in fact, more PROFIT is derived from increasing pollution production!

Astute readers would have noticed there is a common thread/denominator in all the above reports/events, A-M-E-R-I-C-A! The serpent previously referred to is the world retaliating against a BRUTISH, LYING, CRIMINAL REGIME. It seems Uncle Sam may have bitten off far more than he can chew. From the Balkans, Asia, China/Russia, Africa, Latin America, the Middle East and numerous other abused nations, the world is uniting to destroy the ROGUE!

If you blinked you may have missed the REAL news behind ‘the news!’
