

Plutocrat selects new President of the USA

Understand the not so subtle subtleties of plutocracy. After installing Kevin 'lunch in New York' Rudd as the new Prime Minister of Australia, Rupert Murdoch has sent a clear signal to his media minion's by supporting Hillary Clinton with an overt contribution for her campaign in the race for the presidency - message received loud and clear, Rupert! In other words it's all but over for other contenders as Murdoch's media machine adjusts to the wishes of its owner.

Clinton -- Ordained by God/Murdoch

Ready yourselves for the first female President of the USA, it's a certainty! A dynamic change of face to ensure the current unpopular status quo! The naked (violent) face of capitalism will continue on its destructive, murdering and plundering course - it's only natural for the rulers of the world to protect their interests, isn't it?

We can expect more pollution, resource grabs and violent militarism from America and it's puppet allies, the nation is now completely subject to plutocrats.

It is no longer necessary for the once shadowy plutocrats to hold secret meetings and determine the course of THEIR world; a world in which human life has no more value than a statistic; a world where environmental concerns interfere with profits; a world that is based on avarice and violence; A WORLD GUARANTEED TO DESTROY US ALL! A PROFIT AT ALL COSTS WORLD BECAUSE PLUTOCRATS RESPECT ONLY MONEY!

A WORLD WE HAVE CONTRIBUTED IN CREATING! It's time to be 'proud' of our collective 'achievements' (cowardice). The one thing indispensable to plutocrats is a compliant population - so you see, you/we still possess the potential to turn it all around!

Do not doubt the outcome if we remain passive. Australia's Murdoch selectee PM has already backtracked on a number of important issues and has at this early stage proven himself to be a most reliable lackey and the right man for the job. Continue to watch him quietly abandon the policies that would require industry to forego some of its profits and reduce its deleterious impact on the environment. Former Treasurer, Peter Costello, stated that this has been the quietest first week of any new government in Australia since Federation. The reason is obvious, its full steam ahead for the status quo and be very careful not to 'rock the boat,' Kevin, you pathetic, little, servile, turd!

"Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity." (meaningless).

A very long time ago man realised the futility of perverse pursuits and what could be more perverse and destructive today than the rabid pursuit of Profit! Need I go on?

Understand this if nothing else, it is not our leaders or the captains of industry that have failed us; it is we who have failed ourselves. We have allowed these men to pursue a course that leads to certain destruction. Nothing can occur socially without the compliance of the people - if you're looking for someone to blame to a good look in the mirror then wallow in your cowardice. For those who may have missed it, I repeat: "The one thing indispensable to plutocrats is a compliant population - so you see, you/we still possess the potential to turn it all around!"

And for Christ's sake stop looking for leadership! It is precisely that model that created the problem! The old paradigm of leaders and followers is over - ACT OF YOUR OWN VOLITION; stand on your own two feet!

We share our common humanity, your actions may resonate with the entire population or they may land you in jail, or both! But there is nothing like it - pure, real, FREEDOM!

Future PM? -- Go with Australian (not Lib) values, Julie
