

Rice in economic damage control

Economics is not one of Condoleezza Rice's strong points; she is more familiar in roles of invasive warfare, infanticide, plunder, U.S. imperial expansionism and propaganda. Perhaps she relies on her rather feeble skills as a propagandist in an effort to sell economic snake oil to wary and grounded Europeans. Neither Europe nor the rest of the world is buying, Condi; stick to what you know and do well, like killing children and plundering oil! Describing the U.S. economy as 'resilient, healthy and sound,' flies in the face of REALITY, Condi, but reality has never been familiar territory for the Bush regime!

'magic' failing

A first year economics student would inform Rice that basic economic strength is built on PRODUCTION and SAVINGS - America has neither! Almost its entire manufacturing base has gone off-shore and dodgy financiers have been running the country on CREDIT for years - the result, collapse of course!

The American 'solution' is to print more worthless money and continue to spend like drunken sailors - Bush uses drug dependence analogies to describe his latest 'strategy.' His latest idiot solution is to print more money and 'give it away,' this 'strategy' he says will act as "a shot in the arm" - there goes those junkie descriptors again, remember the "addiction to oil," which resulted in the U.S. junkie resorting to criminal activity in order to feed its habit!

Save your breath Condi, the show is over for you and the entire Bush regime; we recommend seeking advice from good lawyers in preparation for the dock! Fortunately this Nazi regime has been exposed and now faces legal consequences for its many crimes.

The European reserve Bank refuses to act like a drug pusher and artificially reduce rates to ACCOMMODATE failing markets - it looks like its 'cold turkey' for the U.S. junkie! I believe evading responsibility for one's actions is common to all drug addicts and pathological personalities.

Down you go, America!

That old black magic has me in its spell
That old black magic that you weave so well

Icy fingers up and down my spine
The same old witchcraft when your eyes meet mine

The same old tingle that I feel inside
When that elevator starts its ride
Down and down I go, round and round I go
Like a leaf that's caught in the tide

I should stay away but what can I do
I hear your name, and I'm aflame
Aflame with such a burning desire
That only your kiss can put out the fire

You are the lover that I've waited for
The mate that fate had me created for
And every time your lips meet mine

Baby down and down I go,
All around I go

In a spin, loving the spin I'm in Under that old black magic called love.

Get a grip Condi, your voice was cracking as you spoke!
