

The Age of Cowardice

by finn Friday, Feb 1 2008, 7:46am

international / social/political / commentary

The most outstanding feature of almost two decades of Australian 'leadership' is COWARDICE and the social paralysis that it engenders. A decade of John Howard's disgustingly servile leadership continues with another face and another party. Labor's PM, Kevin Rudd, is proving to be even more timid and frightened than his predecessor - most Aussies thought that would be impossible, however, reality is difficult to deny!

Faced with some relatively minor leadership challenges the Rudd government stalls, VACILLATES and trembles with fear and indecision! A real leader would have no difficulty taking immediate remedial action when faced with replacing the incompetent AFP Chief, Keelty, or addressing BHP's water plundering or managing escalating food prices or challenging Japanese whaling in our region or asserting national sovereignty in relation to the (failing) USA or demanding that private sector executives justify their obscene salaries or eliminating the failed debt-based economic model and forcing the rapacious Transnationals to return their profits to the nation! These are a few standard leadership challenges for any leader but Australia is presently without real leadership due to the fact that the powers have installed another PUPPET 'LEADER' - Americans take note! Do not install known puppets in any official capacity -- the destructive plutocracy ENDS NOW!

DEMOCRACY IS REPRESENTATIVE MAJORITY RULE - NOT MINORITY ELITE RULE!

Representative leadership is the only hope for the future. It is time for the people to install a real peoples' leader and a government that fulfils the mandate given it by the people. The majority will be served one way or another!

The murdering, wealthy, PIGS must acquiesce to the people or suffer the consequences. It is time for DYNAMIC SOCIAL CHANGE and restructuring - the present system is DYING and taking us with it!

The world requires radical leadership for radical times. The people and world can ill-afford more of the same inept puppet 'leadership.'

Choose wisely America and take note of failed leadership in Australia - a man cannot serve two masters, he either serves the plutocrats or the people!

Equitable distribution of wealth guarantees a resilient, strong, productive and stable society - concentrations of wealth and disparities encourage corruption and decay, as is CLEARLY EVIDENT today!