Those who live by the sword die by the sword. The known murderer and criminal, Hashim Thaci, is a marked man since he unilaterally declared the province of Kosovo independent from Serbia. Thaci's past and future have converged to seal his fate.

Hashim Thaci

Kosovo's secession violates International Law and convention but Thaci has never respected any law other than his own; he is known to Interpol and most European agencies and police as a major Albanian criminal involved in the drug, arms and human trafficking trades. His political persona is extremely useful and convenient considering his real vocation.

Numerous assassinations and murders of Albanian competitors, in the criminal and political world, litter Thaci's path to power – such are his methods. His dead and banished opponents did not have the advantage of a sister married to a leading Albanian crime boss, Sejdi Bajrush! It's all in the 'family' and has been so for years.

Thaci is a classic mafia style criminal combining political influence with the brutal methods of organised crime. The majority of his opponents have all been dealt with leaving Thaci as 'temporary' crime Czar of the region.

Kosovo today is a mess of monumental proportions not the least reason being the selection by the USA of a leading criminal to act as the figurehead and leader of an attack on Serbia. It is simply IMPOSSIBLE to separate Kosovo from Serbia. Politicians can shout declarations from mountaintops until they are hoarse but Kosovo will remain what it is, the heart and soul of the Serbian nation!

When the law fails to serve the people the people become the law. Serbs have no illusions regarding Thaci and it's not too difficult to get good odds on how much longer he will live, notwithstanding the trophy value of bagging the heinous criminal who leads the attack on Serbia's sovereignty.

THACI'S LIFE HAS EVEN LESS VALUE THAN AMERICAN INTEGRITY, AND THAT IS THE LOWEST STANDARD THAT CAN BE APPLIED IN THE WORLD TODAY!

It's all over Hashim, you know it better than most; you also know there is nothing you can do to prevent the inevitable!
