Today's click on my news aggregator produced a curious item; Angelina Jolie in Iraq pleading with General David Petraeus to assist the millions of Iraqi refugees. Might I assist and remind our ineffective 'pretty little thing' that Rumsfeld made it clear when he stated that American forces are "NOT nation builders" or humanitarians. Carried in the sub-text is the cruel Truth; the American military corps are amphetamine-crazed KILLERS, destroyers, spoilers and TORTURERS -- that is the hard reality.

Gen. Patraeus, flags and Angelina Jolie

The American military is not a bleeding hearts club. It is a drug-fuelled killers club that boasts over one million dead civilians, four million displaced persons/refugees and a ruined state. Iraq is yet another outstanding American military 'success story' matched only by the rapidly FAILING economy on the domestic front and impending social collapse - all brought to you by the most incompetent administration the nation has ever known.

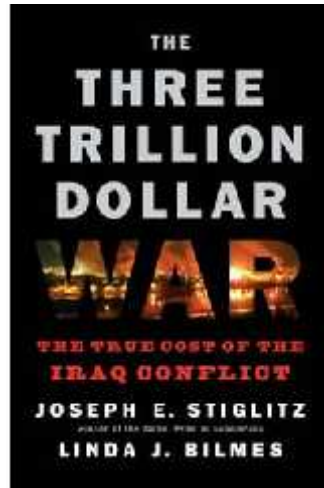

Jolie's appeal to Patraeus is just another public relations failure. Angelina reminds us of Elvis and Nixon, ridiculous!

A little perspective is required Angelina; our Cate (Blanchett) wins acclaim and praise for her acting skills and your roles mostly revolve around your 'tits.'

Whatever it is you do, do it well! If you wish to be effective with the murdering US military ATTACK THEIR WAR CRIMES RECORD, scream JUSTICE from every platform your celeb status provides. Take some lessons from REAL activists, professional propagandists and/or fearless humanitarians who risk life and limb to serve their fellow human beings.

Only in America!

Surely even a Hollywood bimbo is able to determine that Bush, Cheney and the rest of the administration are war criminals! Demand justice, if you are serious. Failing that just do what you've been trained to do, you 'pretty little thing!'
