78 days of US/NATO bombing on Yugoslavia was specifically designed to separate Kosovo from the Yugoslav/Serbian State. An oil and gas pipeline corridor planned for the 'western' Balkans was and is the primary factor/reason for Western intervention in the Balkans.

The energy requirements of Western Europe and the US override all other factors including international law and convention. The AMBO pipeline project takes precedence over every other factor including humanitarian issues, specifically ethnic cleansing of Serbs under the nose of NATO and KFOR – let the truth be widely known, it is now recorded history!

NATO presided over the ethnic cleansing of Serbs and other minorities in Kosovo; notwithstanding Albanian secessionists and Muslim terrorists were utilised to commit the acts of terror and the destruction of hundreds of Serbian churches and monasteries in the province. The demography of Kosovo has since undergone radical change in favour of the Muslim Albanians who now constitute over 90% of the population a 25% increase since WWII!

Put simply Kosovo was taken by force from Serbia! International 'Law,' which today has been rendered almost irrelevant by America in its quest for world domination and strategic energy resources, will no doubt also be ignored by those defending their homeland.

The province of Kosovo remains Serbian, legally, historically, morally and culturally -- the Serbs can never give it up. It is simply impossible for a nation to forfeit its identity and cultural roots; it has often been described as the sacred heart and soul of the Serbian people/nation – what man can surrender his own heart and live?

After nearly a millennium of fighting guerilla warfare and prevailing, Serbs require no lessons in this supremely successful military art! If Kosovo was taken by force it will be regained by force.

Serbs are currently developing strategies that promise to shake the capitals of the invaders – the enemy will soon learn that opting for the violent option was a huge mistake; Serbs are fiercely nationalistic, highly skilled in guerilla tactics and ferocious fighters. When given no choice, as is the case with the theft of Kosovo, Serbs will fight to the death!

All we can say to the West is 'best of American luck' -- the same 'luck' that prevailed in Vietnam, Somalia, Iraq and Afghanistan.

In the immortal words of Ho Chi Minh to American invaders, "you will never succeed, you will never win!"
